LOW RATES OF INTEREST.

These Lands were gran ed by the Government to sid in the constriction of this Railroad, and include some of the richest and most fertile Pistines in the State, interspersed here and these with magnificent groves of oak and other times. The Boad extends from Cheaso on the north east to Cafro at the south, and from thence to Ga eta and Dun eith, in the norta-west extreme of the State; and as all the jands I'e within 6f teen mines on each side of this Road, re-dy and cheap means are affirmed by it for transporting the moneyte of the lands to any of those points, and from themse to Eastern and Southern markets. Moreover, the rapid growth of flore shing means and willages along the line and the great increase in popul sine by immigration, &c., afford a substantial and growing home demand for flam produce.

the water curses, the disc to these lands is carried wither my spots or interrupted water communications, increases the appeared framsportation, which must be home by the settlers, in the reduced prices of their products; and to that attent precisely are the incomes from their farms and of course on their irrestments, annually and every year reduced.

The great fertility of the lands now offered for sale by this Company at ditheir consequent yield over those of the Eastern and Middle States, is much more than sufficient to pay the difference in the cost of transports ion, especially in view of the facilities furnished by this Road, and others with which it cannot set of the operations of which are not interrupted by the low water of Summer or the frost of Wirter.

PRICE AND TERMS OF PAYMENT.
